WE ARE UNIQUELY POSITIONED AND TRAINED

We have decades of experience and the brightest minds from the CIA, NSA, Special Ops, and Law Enforcement. At DeliverFund, we continue using our specialized training to create solutions and technology to protect your community from the horrors of human trafficking.

DeliverFund is the only nonprofit gathering information and creating technology to arrest traffickers with our law enforcement partners, while continuing to give hope and support to survivors of human trafficking.

THE PROBLEM

Human traffickers actively exploit the lack of communication between law enforcement jurisdictions by moving across state lines.

If you just rescue a victim, you incentivize the recruitment of future victims.

Traffickers use technology to identify and groom victims, and over 80% of purchasers buy illicit sex online.

DeliverFund is the only entity coordinating human trafficking cases on a national and international level.

DeliverFund is focusing on the prevention of the crime by going after the human trafficker.

DeliverFund has the largest analyst-curated human trafficking database, using the technology traffickers use against them.
